NEWS

It's another ISH year and Villeroy & Boch are using the exhibition to launch some great new products, theres a short overview below, but if you would like more details you can download a presentation from here (suggest you right click and choose the option 'save target as' as this is over 5mb in size!

AQUAGATE - Shown at previous ISH's but now finally ready for the UK market, this exclusive steam/shower will be available for order at the show!

STEAM CUBE - Introduction of a range of 'new technology' high quality, steam cabins offering new features at entry-level prices.

SUBWAY & LIFETIME ENCLOSURES - ISH will see the launch of 2 brand new ranges of Villeroy & Boch shower enclosures, under the names Subway and Lifetime.

SQUARO ext. - There has been an exciting extension to the Squaro range, which now includes a Quarry! corner bath, some great 'very flat' shower trays and a very nice walk-in shower.

INVISIBLE JETS - The Wellness Fitness Whirlpool systems are now available in Quarry! baths, as a very ingenious colour matched jet, making them appear (when the system is off) invisible!

SUBWAY BATHS - To add to the success of the Subway range a number of new bath formats join the range, making this one of the most comprehensive bath ranges available.

LIFETIME - Lifetime is a brand new complete suite range being launched for the first time. Designed for aesthetics and function incorporating some unique features. There is no close coupled pan.

METRIC ART - An variant of the successful City Life range of furniture, Metric Art combines a very slim basin with a new finish for City Life furniture, New Haven bath and the most unusual WC you will see!

SENTIQUE - Now fully available and will be shown in all it's variants including some very smart furniture designs.

OMNIA ARCHITECTURA - Again, fully available (apart from cc WC which will arrive in the summer) and shown in combination with the very affordable Architectura bath.

VARIABLE - Similar in range to the Virage range of basins. Variable is available in numerous configurations including made to measure. Very smart range of accompanying furniture.

CENTRAL LINE - Now available in 2 very smart new finishes 'Glossy Walnut' and the beautiful 'Macassar Decor' finishes. Central line will now be available with a drawer and to fit Velvet basins.

MORE TO SEE - New range of universal mirrors, illuminated and non-illuminated.

SOUL - Brand new full range of brassware shown for the first time.

There will be special ISH deals and these are open to anyone not attending the show, although orders must be placed during ISH week.

There is a pricing error in the new Wilness price list. These apply to pages 14, 43 and 85.
